CERTIFIED STATEMENT OF NEED FOR ADDITIONAL PUBLIC FUNDS (PARTICIPANTS ONLY)

In order to limit public funding in races where participants face minimal opposition, public funds payments are capped at 25% of the maximum. This cap does not apply if a participant is running in a primary or special election for an open seat (an office for which no incumbent is seeking reelection).

Except in open seat primaries or special elections as set forth above, participating candidates must demonstrate a need for additional public funds using this form once for every election in which they seek the maximum public funds. Only the candidate may sign and submit the Certified Statement of Need.

This form must be received by the CFB by July 29, 2013, to be considered for the first public funds payment of the 2013 primary election. For subsequent public funds payments, it must be received by the filing deadline(s) for the disclosure statement(s) preceding the scheduled payment date.

The CFB will verify the truthfulness of this statement and supporting documentation, which will be posted to the CFB's website.

The SBA, which represents more than 12,000 active and retired sergeants of the New York City Police Department, said “ensuring the safety of our fellow citizens is the most sacred responsibility in our society, and Macron has exemplified that in his years of service as an Assistant District Attorney and as a prosecutor in the Special Narcotics office.”

Macron served in the Staten Island District Attorneys office under the legendary Bill Murphy, and is challenging incumbent Debi Rose, who has been widely criticized for her votes to override Mayor Bloomberg’s veto of the Community Safety Act.

“I am honored to accept the endorsement of the SBA,” Macron said, “because they know what fighting crime and keeping our neighborhoods safe is all about.”

Macron, a former Assistant District Attorney continued, “Politicians and ideologues should leave policing to trained law enforcement professionals. The NYPD is the best police department in the world, and they don’t need second-guessing by politicians.”

Mark realizes that it is dedicated police work, not political posturing, that fights crime.”

“Mark Macron is someone we look forward to working closely and productively with on issues that affect law enforcement and organized labor. We are proud to endorse him in his race for the City Council,” Palladino concluded.
