A: My name is Bob Turner & I am running for Congress in the 9th Congressional District representing Brooklyn and Queens. I am a businessman who will use my 40 years of business experience to make a difference in Washington. As a parent and grandparent, I worry about future generations, which is why I am running. My wife Peggy & I have lived in the district our entire lives. We both grew up in Woodhaven and later raised our 5 children in Richmond Hill and now have 13 grandchildren. For nearly 20 years now, we have lived in Rockaway Point. We need to make sure the men and women that I want to represent have jobs. I also want to protect Medicare and Social security for those who are 55 and older. These men and women have paid into the system and are expecting to receive these funds in their retirement. I want to reach across the aisle and fix the ever-growing list of economic issues that plague our nation. My platform is based on sound economic principles. These principles have been successfully utilized by both Democrats like JFK and Republicans such as Ronald Reagan. With your help, I am certain that we can secure a sound future for generations to come. This is why I am asking you to vote for me on Tuesday, September 13th
