

7th City Council District

Alicia Barksdale (D)

Hi, my name is Alicia Barksdale and I am one of many candidates running in the 7th District for City Council.

With over 40 yrs in the District, 30 yrs as a single mother & Community activist, I've made personal & difficult decisions in order to pursue a better quality of life for my family.

I have faith in God & feel that "Every person has their own Right to make decisions about their own body, life, love, religion & be responsible for themselves."

My goal & efforts are to help empower and advocate for NYC Working Families, jobs, re-entry to society, environment, targeting people's income for affordable housing in my community & NYC, and getting serious about improving public education for all students, not just a few.

From my own personal experience with Domestic Violence, Sexual Harassment and being aware of the negative impact it has on families, I will work to execute stronger laws, educational program, and expanding more outlets to protect those effected by the economy.

Who are the "Carpetbaggers" running in our district?

Who are the "Career Candidates?"

Do they think our community is a weak, helpless community to take advantage of our voters @ this time?

Or hope that we are too busy trying to survive in this city in order to pay attention to what is really going on?

Which candidates are pushing us out by making deals w/ developers?

I have walked the walk and can talk the talk in our community for so many years and I am the ONLY CANDIDATE WHO CAN REPRESENT US!

I am Alicia Barksdale, Your Next City Council Woman for the 7th District.
