

Alexandra Machover

Hi there,

My name is Alexandra Machover. I'm a Creative Director from New York. I requested an absentee ballot for both the primaries and the presidential election, as I am not currently at my normal address in Brooklyn. I am in California right now.

I requested this ballot by mail and by email (because I wanted to be sure that I received it). I never received my absentee ballot by mail, so I was unable to vote in the New York primaries on June 23rd.

This is extremely unfortunate, as I did everything properly on my end in order to receive an absentee ballot.

I will be taking 2 days off of work and booking a refundable plane ticket for November to guarantee that I can vote in the presidential election, because, at this rate, I don't trust that I will receive my absentee ballot by mail.

Please reach out if you have any questions.

Alexandra
