

jessica

Hello-

The voting experience was bad at my polls- for some reason there was a long and very slow line just at one table. Multiple staff where not wearing their masks and two of them were consistently coughing while very close to others and with their masks pulled off. One was coughing into his hand, then touching the tablet screen and handing people ballots. Staff needs serious training on COVID safety, I did not feel safe.